THE ART OF CONFUSION   bpm: 92

Drums only intro
Intro w horns: Dm7 – A7

Dm7 – A7
Aimlessly wander – staring at the windows – voices, tongues I do not recognize Line up – stand down – I'm looking all around – a million doorways & I don't know which to take

Carry all your burdens – roll 'em all behind you
Look left look right – baby you don't have a clue
Don't look, don't stare – focusing on out ahead
Plugged in – walk in pairs – an angry conversation

CHORUS: Bb – A7
Impatient a-symmetry – exactly how it's supposed to be
Confident tranquility – tell me what it is I see
Decomposed soliloquy – exposing everything it ought to be
Lacking in proficiency – mastering the art of confusion

Intro w horns: Dm7 – A7

Dm7 – A7
Blinking lights, spotlights – intercoms overhead
Voices I don't want to recognize Row 3 – A B – nowhere that I wanna be Push your way up to the front line

Look out overhead – everyone is in my head
Soulless eyes and minds that fall in line
Do what you're supposed to do – look out ahead of you
Life's got to be more than just another queue

CHORUS: Bb – A7
Impatient a-symmetry – exactly how it's supposed to be
Confident tranquility – tell me what it is I see
Decomposed soliloquy – exposing everything it ought to be
Lacking in proficiency – mastering the art of confusion

Inconsistent idolatry – everything's bigger than what you see Latent virtuosity – everything is better than it has to be Tangential immobility – full of function and utility
Tenacious probability – mastering the art of confusion
