

APRIL 26, 1992 (SUBLIME)

D - A

April 26th, 1992...There was a riot on the streets Tell me, where were you?
You were sittin' home watchin' your TV,
While I was participating in some anarchy

First spot we hit it was my liquor store, I finally got all that alcohol I can't afford
With red lights flashin', time to retire,
And then we turned that liquor store into a structure fire

Next stop we hit, it was the music shop,
It only took one brick to make that window drop
Finally we got our own P.A.
Where do you think I got this guitar that you're hearing today?

When we returned to the pad to unload everything
It dawned on me that I need new home furnishings
So once again we filled the van until it was full
Since that day, my livin' room's been much more comfortable

'Cause everybody in the hood has had it up to here
It's getting hotter and harder and harder each and every year
Some kids went in a store with their mother
I saw her when she came out, she was gettin' some Pampers

They said it was for the black man
They said it was for the Mexican, and not for the white man
But if you look at the streets, it wasn't about Rodney King
And this ***** up situation and these ***** up police

It's about comin' up and stayin' on top
And screamin' 1-8-7 on a motherfuckin' cop
It's not in the paper, it's on the wall...National Guard
Smoke from all around

Let it burn, wanna let it burn...Wanna let it burn, wanna, wanna let it burn
Riots on the streets of Miami Whoa, riots on the streets of Chicago
On the streets of Long Beach Mmm, and San Francisco
Riots on the streets of Kansas City, Tuscaloosa, Alabama
Cleveland, Ohio, Fountain Valley, Bear Mountain, Victorville
Eugene, Oregon, Eureka, California...let it burn, let it burn...
San Diego, let it burn let it burn
Lakeland, Florida (let it burn)
