

JAILHOUSE (SUBLIME)

D - E

Jailhouse gets empty...Rudy gets plenty
The baton stick gets shorter...Rudy gets taller

Can't fight against the youth
'Cause we're strong and them are rude, rude people
Can't fight against the youth
'Cause we're strong and the rude, rude people (Long, baby now)

When I was a youth in 1983, It was the best day of my life
Had the 89 vision, we didn't fuss or no fight
When all the little daughters wanna be my wife
"Like A Virgin", it was playin on my guitar, on my guitar

I had to be there...I had to be there
I had to be there...I had to be there

When the rhythm...playin'
I know that I'm gonna be there, yeah
Zach Pearl will be singing there
And Nick Young will be bangin' up there, yeah

Oh, and we'll be all singin' with version, with version
Reggae version, version, version, version oh

What has been told to the wise and up-rooted
Yeah, it's gonna be revealed unto babes, and Sublime (Rudy, Rudy, Rudy)

Can't fight against the youth
Right now, them are rude, rude people
Can't fight against the resistance
Oh, right now, 'em are rude, rude people

I had to be there...I had to be there
I had to be there...I had to be there

Jailhouse gets empty...Rudy gets plenty
The baton stick gets shorter...Rudy gets taller

Can't fight against the youth
'Cause we're strong and them are rude, rude people
Can't fight against the youth
